director's note

Christina Sayut

This show means so much to me - if you haven't heard me say it yet, I performed in Anything Goes in high school. I am so grateful for the memories that I have from my 2018 production, but I am so beyond blessed to have the chance to build more. This show, to me, is a constant reminder of the importance of friendship and connection. To the cast that brings these characters alive each night, I will never be able to thank you enough for all of the work you have put into this show. Every rehearsal I felt myself flooded with emotion and overcome with love for each and every one of you, and I will forever appreciate you all following me more or less blindly into the creative process.

I truly believe that everything takes a village. This show is built upon the efforts of everyone who stepped up and helped to support me and the production. Audrey, my rock and my stage manager, words cannot express what words cannot express. I will never be able to accurately write down how much I love you and how important you are to me. Thank you for everything you have done to make this production run smoothly - emailing schedules, emailing revised schedules, and most importantly somehow being able to understand how my mind works. This show would not be possible without you. To one of my best friends, Irish Colleen, thank you for taking time out of study abroad to put on your producer hat and check on me. It means so much to me that you supported me and told me how proud of me you were even when you were thousands of miles away. To Libby and Theresa, my choreography queens, thank you for stepping in so late in the production process to help me bring my vision for the show to life. You are my PEMPeople, and I love you dearly. To Tommy, thank you for knowing how to partner dance and helping me whenever I said "Tommy I want it to look like this but I do not know how it works." To Anna, thank you for being an incredible teacher and a wonderful friend and resource throughout this whole process - you helped us produce this beautiful sound. To the senior producers - Mary Kate, Liz, Nic, and Lucy - thank you for starting me on this journey and helping me see it through. To my perfect roommate, Marissa, thank you for giving me the room so that I could choreograph in peace and not have to trudge over to Washington Hall when it would snow. To the Keenan boys, thank you for letting me come over for the last 30 minutes before parietals just to say hi to you and to talk your ear off about a show that you know nothing about (but hey now that you guys have seen it maybe everything I've talked about makes sense). To Malia, thank you for being the best RA anyone could ever ask for and for always bringing my jacket to rehearsal if I forgot it because the weather was nice earlier in the day. To my family, thank you for your endless support and constant willingness to answer my phone calls. I do not know how I would have functioned if I was not able to call one of you guys whenever I walked somewhere. I love the unconditional support that I know I have from you all, and I am so beyond blessed that you guys traveled to come see my show. Mom, Dad, and John, thank you for letting me pursue my dreams and teaching me that there is no limit, not even the sky. Jason, thank you for teaching me how to lead with grace and kindness. This one's for you! Enjoy the show!

CAST BIOS

JULIA ALLEN (REPORTER/ENSEMBLE) Julia is a senior Accounting major with a History minor at Saint Mary's College from Bloomington, IL. This is her second PEMCo show, and coincidentally her second season in The Sayut School of Dance. Outside of PEMCo, she is a proud member of the Notre Dame Band (saxes love saxes!) and a Guitar Hero aficionado. She'd like to thank all of the PEMPeeps, her family for their support, and her room(soul)mate Gracie for her continuous encouragement to audition. Go Belles!

EVELYN BERRY (ANGEL) Evelyn Berry is a sophomore Studio Art major from San Diego, California. When she is not doing trenches or asking her fellow cast-mates if they remember a time when nothing went, you can find her reading, drawing, or falling asleep in a sun spot. Evelyn is so happy to be a part of this production and sends her love to the incredible cast and crew. She is still waiting on her She-Hulk-style transformation from PEMCardio.

MALIA BISSEN (EVANGELINE HARCOURT) Malia is a senior ACMS major from Madison, WI. She is ready to fly into her PEMCo debut. Previously she has worked on FTT musicals including Old Family Recipe (ASM) and Dawn's Early Light (Workshop Class). After graduation, she will be teaching as part of ND's ACE program. She would like to thank the entire cast and crew for being a blast (from the stacks) to work with. She would like to give a special shoutout to her family, friends, boyfriend Noah for their support.

BRYCE BUSTAMANTE (MOONFACE MARTIN) Bryce is a sophomore from Phoenix, AZ studying International Economics and Political Science. He is beyond excited to be appearing in his fourth PEMCo show and eternally grateful to have found this home on campus. He would like to thank all of his family and friends both on stage and in the audience for their endless love and support! The best part of acting in this show is that it's exactly how Bryce interacts with all of his friends...minus the crime...and the boat...but anything goes!

RYLAN CHROMY (DIPPY/ENS.) Rylan Chromy is an architecture major, with minors in Italian and European studies, from the middle of nowhere, Nebraska. This is Rylan's first major show with PEMCo and he couldn't be more excited to be a part of it. He's even more excited that it's Seussical! But when he's not with PEMCo, Rylan can be found with the Humor Artists. He can't thank you enough for coming and being a part of this show! Oh, The Things That You'll Think when you see this show!

AVA DECROIX (ANGEL) Ava is a junior living in Farley Hall, and is having a blast as one of the angels in Anything Goes! She's loved returning to PEMCo after being a part of last spring's revue, and has particularly enjoyed all of the iconic dance numbers in this show. She would like to thank the entire cast (especially the other angel babies), crew, pit, and production team for a delovely show.

CAST BIOS

He is a proud member of PghCO, as he constantly reminds his friends that “I’m from Pittsburgh.” When he isn’t at rehearsal, you can most likely find him singing with The Echoes, working at Yaz’s, or kicking back in the family room. He would like to thank his family and friends for their ongoing support as well as the INCREDIBLE cast and crew that helped bring this show to life.

DANIELLE GERARDI (RENO SWEENEY) Danielle is a senior Computer Science major from Long Island and on campus, she calls the clarinet section and the Lafun basement home. This is Danielle’s second time doing an amateur imitation of Sutton Foster for PEMCo and though she has worn many PEMHats, this one is her favorite. She sometimes feels like she’ll explode from gratitude for her village of people and the funny little ways of the universe and shouts out her superstar brother Vincent for flying out to see this show <3.

MARY KATE GODFREY (ANGEL/EXECUTIVE PRODUCER) Mary Kate is a senior majoring in Political Science and Global Affairs and minoring in Musical Theatre. Originally from Elizabethtown, KY, Mary Kate resides on-campus in Pasquerilla East Hall (the original home of PEMCo whoop whoop)! She is so grateful for one last show with all of these lovely people, and she gives all of PEMCo her best <3

SERENA MELONIO (ENSEMBLE) Serena is a sophomore from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania studying English, Political Science, and Health, Humanities & Society, and is ecstatic to be in her first show with PEMCo! He would like to thank the cast, pit, and crew for making Anything Goes such a wonderful experience!

OLIVIA ZINO (ENSEMBLE) Olivia is a freshman Environmental Engineer from Long Island, New York and is thrilled to be returning to PEMCo for her second show! NICOLAS GUTIERREZ (PRODUCTION MANAGEMENT PRODUCER) Nicolas Gutierrez is a senior double majoring in not finding a job and moving back in with his parents. She officially has run out of program bio jokes and would like to return to contemplating the existential dread of becoming a real adult, so she simply wants to thank her family who have been the longest time supporters of her amateur theater career, her friends for always giving glowing reviews, and the PEMCo team for giving her one more chance to perform before disappearing into a corporate office forever.

PIT BIOS

She has had so much fun playing in the pit for PEMCo, and would like to thank all her new friends and those who have continually supported her.

MAXIMILIAN WILFINGER (TRUMPET 2) Maximilian is a first year graduate student at Notre Dame, his background is in chemistry. He is the critically acclaimed 2nd trumpet belonging to PEMCO's production of Anything Goes. He has played trumpet since he was a young lad, for which he is considered an old lad now by modern standards. His aspirations were to go to Berklee and play jazz because jazz is fun, but he ended up going to a school you've all probably heard of, CCSU. Maximilian Wilfinger hopes congratulates and commends everyone involved for putting on a phenomenal production, and hopes YOU (yeah, you) enjoy the show!

Good luck to Emily R. and the
